NSF

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE
CENTER FOR CYBERSECURITY, ASSURANCE & PRIVACY

Scholarship for Service

CyberCorps®
Defending America's Cyberspace

Program Overview

This NSF program aims to cultivate a skilled workforce by preparing highly qualified cybersecurity professionals.

The SFS scholarship is a prestigious award that offers generous stipend, allowance, and full tuition for two years to eligible US citizens and US permanent residents.

Following graduation, scholarship recipients are required to work in cybersecurity for a federal, state, local, or tribal Government organization for at least 2 years.

Additional Information
tinyurl.com/UD-SFS-Scholars

Contact:
UD SFS Directors
cybersecurity-info@udel.edu

Eligible Programs

- Bachelor's in Cybersecurity Engineering (Juniors)
- Master's in Cybersecurity (thesis path)
- Computer Engineering (Seniors) enrolled in MSc Cybersecurity 4+1 program

Selection Criteria

- Enrollment in an eligible cyber degree at UD
- US citizenship or US permanent residency
- GPA + cyber experience
- Personal statement, transcript and recommendation letters